Invitation

Lower Saxony – Scotland Joint Forum 2021

22 – 23 November 2021
Online Conference

The European Centre for Advanced Studies (ECAS) in cooperation with Leuphana University Lüneburg and the University of Glasgow, cordially invites you to the second edition of the Lower Saxony – Scotland Joint Forum.

The Lower Saxony – Scotland Joint Forum is an annual conference designed to foster the relationship between higher education institutions within both regions, by establishing lasting links between academics, staff, and students. It is expression of the in 2019 signed Memorandum of Understanding between Universities Scotland (US) and the Landeshochschulkonferenz (LHK). Both institutions have made a commitment to deepen cooperation and to promote and to facilitate the internationalisation of higher education and academic exchange between Lower Saxonian and Scottish universities.

After a successful first edition in 2020, with over 300 participants, we are looking forward to again bring academics, staff and students from all universities and higher education institutions across Scotland and Lower Saxony together, to provide networking opportunities, to expand existing partnerships and to establish new collaborations as well as continue ongoing projects.

On the first day, you may expect interesting discussions by renowned experts and academics from Lower Saxony and Scotland on the future of cooperation between higher education institutions of both regions reflecting upon the most recent political and societal changes and attempting to provide an outlook. On the second day, academics, staff and students are invited to host their own workshops to present and discuss their joint projects, building momentum in existing projects and stimulating new ideas and new partnerships for future collaborations.

We hope that you can join us for the Lower Saxony – Scotland Joint Forum 2021.
