Session III – 10 am CET
USE-LESS: Designing a Sustainable Future for Fashion

1. Workshop Organizers

Prof. Martina Glomb, University of Applied Sciences and Arts Hannover

Josie Steed BA (Hons) MSc, SFHEA, Robert Gordon University

2. Workshop Description

During the workshop the partner universities from Scotland and Lower Saxony will present their projects focusing on the subject of “Designing a Sustainable Future for Fashion”. An illustrated insight on the recent and future research and teaching cooperation will be followed by a creative student presentation of the “USE-LESS gallery”.

The project is aiming to establish a lively exchange between academics, scholars and students on the subject of sustainable strategies. There will be time for discussions and exchange on possibilities and problems regarding the fashion industry and fashion education.
